

26th Annual IASBS Meeting on Condensed Matter Physics
July 7-9, 2021 (16-18 Tir 1400)

The Physics Society of Iran

Organized by:

Department of Physics

(Condensed Matter, Soft Matter & Biological Physics, and Complex Systems Groups)

The Meeting:

The 26th annual IASBS meeting on condensed matter physics will be held online this year. The aim of this meeting is to bring together experimental and theoretical scientists in the fields of condensed matter, soft matter & biological physics, and complex systems to present their most recent research and to create an atmosphere for fruitful discussion. The poster session provides an excellent opportunity for young researchers and students to gain invaluable experience through online discussion.
